Tiruchelvam(Tiru) is familiar to Montreal as a member of Ekaantha Seetha and Silappadhikaram troupes. Kalakshetra trained Tiru has worked with leading dancers like Krishnaveni Lakshmanan, Leela Samson, Lakshmi Viswanathan, Chandralekha, Hema Malini, and Anita Ratnam. He also worked with Mark Taylor (USA), G. Narendra (Chennai), Patrickk Gleyse (France), Jaan R. Freeman (USA), and with leading Indian and International Dance Companies. He has toured all over the world and has an impressive list of TV and choreographic credits.

Shivani Thakkar is a disciple of Sudha Thakkar and Kalaimamani Guru Kalyanasundaram. She has performed extensively since 2000. She has been training in Ballet, Jazz, Tap and Hip Hop under top professionals to accomplish fusion choreography in Bharatanatyam.

Sudha Thakkar, disciple of Kuppiah Pillai and his son Kalyanasundaram, has been performing for 45 years. She received well deserved recognition all over Canada, particularly Alberta for her distinguished contribution to the performing arts.

K.A. Sivaramakrishnan (Ganesh), has toured all over the world performing for over 25 years, and was recently honoured for his contribution to Bharatanatyam. He has given many music recitals in Canada and USA.

T.K. Ramakrishnan, mridangam maestro is a globe trotter performing with renowned Bharatanatyam dancers. His orchestral assignments include recording of music with Ravi Shankar (Attenborough's Gandhi movie), legendary music directors Vijaya Raghava Rao and S.D. Burman. He is a noted AIR and Doordarshan artist.

M.S. Kannan is the son of the great Mridanga Vidwan and Music composer "Layachudaroli" Kalaimamani Madurai T. Srinivasan. He is a disciple of Kandadevi Chellam Iyengar, and has also received advanced training from violin maestro C.N. Chandrasekhar. He has played with the renowned Dhananjayans, and worked with the legendary composer Vijaya Raghava Rao.
