Ganesh and Kumaresh – the ace violin duo of Carnatic Music, hit the headlines in 1972, with their very first stage appearance at the ages of 7 and 5. Trained by their father, Shri Rajagopalan, an excellent artiste in his own right, Ganesh and Kumaresh completed their hundredth stage appearance before the younger brother was ten years of age !

The maestros have been honoured as Asthana Vidwans of the Sri Matam of Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam. They were the youngest violinists to be recognized by All India Radio as A-top ranking artists. Many more accolades and awards made their way in recognition to their mastery. 'kalaimamani', 'Sunaadha Sironmani', 'Sangeetha Saragnya', 'Dwaram Venkata swami Naidu award' are only some of the many titles that have been heaped on them.

B.Sivaraman is a very talented mridangist who is familiar to North American audiences. He has accompanied noted vocalists like Vedavalli, Hyderabad Brothers, and several times Ganesh and Kumaresh. He is currently accompanying Ganesh and Kumaresh on their European, US and Canadian tour.

N.Guruprasad is an accomplished and popular ghatam player. He has accompanied such leading artists as Unnikrishnan, T.M. Krishna, Malladi Brothers, Ranjani and Gayathri, Vijay Siva and others.
