Violin: Nagaraj and Manjunath

Child prodigies, violin maestros, Nagaraj and Manjunath are the sons and disciples of renowned violinist Sangeetha Vidya Nidhi Prof. S. Mahadevappa. Dr. Manjunath earned his Ph.D for his scholarly thesis on "Violin in Indian Classical Music" and later represented Indian Music at San Diego. Reputed for their marvellous imagination, technical virtuosity, superb fingering and bowing technique, their concerts are filled with peace, tranquillity and exhilaration. They have performed at prestigious organizations all over the world. They have collaborated with many outstanding musicians from all over the world such as: Jugalbandhis with Pandit V.C.Jog, Pandit Vishwamohan Bhat, Tajendra Narayana Majumdar, Pandit Ronu Majumdar, Dr. N. Ramani, and others. Their association with top most Western Classical and Country Violinist Mark Connor, renowned composer Jai Uttal, famous Italian Guitarist Priyo, and well-known Rock Violin Star Mark Wood are evidence of their versatility and genius. Some of the titles and awards galore bestowed upon them are: Best Violinist (Music Academy), Rajyotsav Award (Govt. of Karnataka), Excellence Award from American Institute of World Culture, Award from American Arts Council, Sangeetha Samrat and Sangeetha Ratna.

Mridangam: Srimushnam RajaRao

With a four-decade spanning career, Sri RajaRao is a distinguished Mridangist and musician who earned the respect and admiration of the rasikas as well as fellow artists. He is rated among the very top mridangists today. He hails from a family of fine musicians, his father and grandfather being great vidwans themselves. His advanced training was with the legendary Kumbakonam Rajappa Iyer. He has toured all the continents more than a dozen times and has accompanied all the leading artists. He has been awarded many titles and awards including "Asthana Vidwan" by both Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam and Sringeri Sarada Peetam, and "Sangeetha Ratnakara" by Cleveland Thyagaraja Festival.
