Article 21 of the BSS Constitution By-laws governing Election to the Board of Directors: In order to be nominated for election as a Director, a person shall have been a member of the "SANGHAM" continuously for at least a year. Candidates shall be nominated by one member and seconded by two others. Nomination may be sent to the Secretary prior to the meeting. Alternatively, nominations may also be made from the floor. No nomination is valid unless the nominee is present at the time of the nomination or has provided acceptance of the nomination in writing to the Secretary.
